Work Experience

Data Science, Intern CIRF

06/2025 – 07/2025

Chennai, India

This project analyzes Electric Vehicle Sales data to identify market trends, regional adoption patterns, and factors influencing purchase decisions. Using exploratory data analysis and predictive modeling, it provides insights to support data-driven sales and marketing strategies.

FrontEnd Development, Intern Apex Planet

09/2025 – 10/2025

Remote

This project delivers a fully responsive and scalable frontend for an e-commerce platform, featuring product browsing, advanced filtering, cart management, and a seamless checkout experience. It focuses on performance, clean UI design, and smooth API integration to ensure an efficient and intuitive shopping journey.

Full Stack Development, Intern Codec Technologies

01/2026 – 02/2026

Remote

Worked on developing and maintaining web applications using frontend technologies like HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, along with backend frameworks and database integration. Implemented APIs, dynamic features, and responsive design for better user experience. Collaborated with team members to debug, test, and optimize code, gaining hands-on experience in the full software development lifecycle.

Projects

Phishing Email Detection, Python, Machine Learning, JS, HTML/CSS, PostgreSQL

Link

Built a machine learning model to detect phishing emails using text and URL-based features. Trained and evaluated multiple algorithms to achieve high accuracy. Deployed the model as a simple web app for real-time detection.

BioVision AI, React.js, Python, MongoDB, CNN

Link

Developed a multi-modal AI-based web application that predicts blood group using fingerprint and eye images. Implemented deep learning models using CNN and transfer learning techniques to generate predictions with confidence scores. Built a full-stack system with React frontend, Flask backend, and MongoDB for data storage. Integrated visualization and explainable AI features to enhance model interpretability.

AI Health Query, React.js, Python, LLM, MongoDB, Groq API

Link

Built an AI-powered Health Query Assistant web application that enables users to analyze symptoms and receive intelligent healthcare guidance using LLMs and RAG. Integrated chatbot, voice interaction, and smart doctor recommendation features to enhance user experience. Developed scalable backend APIs and deployed the system using modern cloud platforms.
